

Snowsport England Members Director Roles & Responsibilities

Member's Director Responsibilities

The member's director has the same legal responsibilities as all the other directors on the SSE board with a responsibility to help with the link to the membership and to make sure membership issues are brought to the attention of the board in an appropriate manner.

Key responsibilities

- Engage with all parts of the SSE membership across all disciplines
- Help with open evenings to build relationships with all members including individual, club, coach, official and associate.
- To gather feedback from the membership through meeting's, surveys and report back to the board
- To help get key message from the board out to the membership using the communication channels available to us
- To help resolve any membership issues that arise and be the voice of the membership on the board.
- Represent and communicate the views of the whole membership with the board

Director of SSE responsibilities

Overall Purpose

The Board of Directors is responsible for the overall governance and strategic direction of the organisation, developing the organisation's aims, objectives and goals in accordance with, legal and regulatory guidelines.

Main Responsibilities

- To ensure that the organisation and its representatives function within the legal and regulatory framework of the sector, continually striving for best practice in governance.
- To uphold the fiduciary duty invested in the position, undertaking such duties in a way that adds to public confidence and trust in the organisation.
- To take appropriate professional advice in all matters where there may be material risk to the organisation, or where the Directors may be in breach of their duties. This course of action will ensure the obligation to exercise their duty of care.
- To determine the overall direction and development of the organisation through good governance and clear strategic planning.
- To avoid any personal conflict of interest.
