2017 Nordic Junior World Championships

This year's 2017 Nordic Junior World Championships run from January 30th to February 5th and are being held in the US for the first time in over 30 years. The venue is Park City, Utah, host of the 2002 Olympic Games. The championships cover the three sports of Cross Country, Nordic Combined and Ski Jumping and in total there will be about 500 athletes taking part from over 40 nations.

On the Ski Jumping side there are 22 countries participating, with Great Britain being represented by 19 year old twins Jake and Robert Lock. Jake and Robert have been competing on the international circuit for Great Britain for 2 years, competing in the US, where they live and train, and also all over Europe.

All events are being live streamed through NNF TV (<http://nationalnordicfoundation.org/tv/>) - this is a pay per view arrangement with any profit going directly to the sports covered - and the ski jumping competition that Robert and Jake are participating in takes place on Wednesday 2nd February. In addition, fellow Great Britain ski jumper, Sam Bolton, who is based in Calgary, Canada, has been invited to be a forejumper for all ski jumping events.

We wish them luck in this prestigious competition.

Applications are open for the Members Director Role

The Snowsport England Board would like to invite nominations for the Members' Director role, which is currently vacant.

NATIONAL SCHOOLS SNOWSPORT WEEK

Monday 24th – Sunday 30th April 2017

National Schools Snowsport Week is a campaign delivered by Snowsport England's Youth Development Committee, which aims to develop school children's skills and abilities and increases school participation in Snowsports.

Following the successful pilot in 2016 (which saw a total of 21 Slopes across England, 149 schools and 1066 school children participate in the initiative) we are delighted to announce that National Schools Snowsport Week will be delivered again on Monday 24th – Sunday 30th April 2017.

Does your Region, Club, or Slope want to be involved? Or do you know a school that would like to take up the opportunity?
